

Niger: Rift Valley Fever (Situation as of 05 October 2016)

Situation update

- A total of 90 cases and 28 deaths (CFR: 31%) reported between 02 August and 05 October 2016 from Tchintabaraden in Tahoua region.
- High risk of spread to neighboring countries given the prevailing security situation, population movement and limited public health infrastructure in the affected areas.

Geographic distribution of RVF cases in Niger, as of 05 October 2016

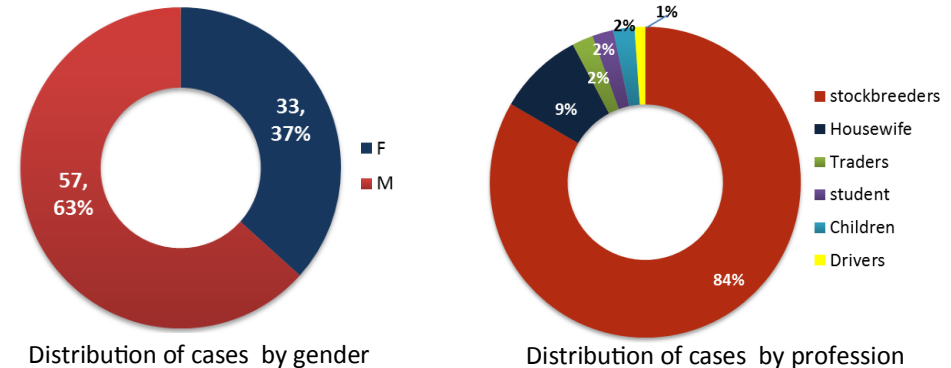

Distribution of cases by age group, as of 05 October 2016

Actions undertaken

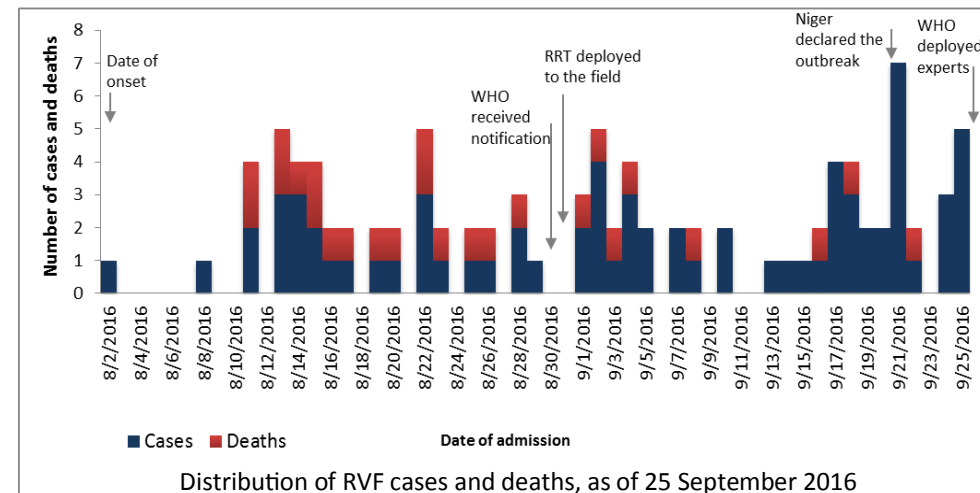

- A multi-disciplinary team of experts comprised of MOH, MOL, WHO, & FAO* deployed in the field to support response operations.
- Mobile laboratory of IP Dakar deployed in the field to support detection and confirmation of cases as well as monitoring of the effectiveness of interventions
- A multi-sectoral response plan developed to support advocacy and mobilization of critical resources

*MoH = Ministry of Health; MOL = Ministry of Livestock; WHO = World Health Organization; FAO = Food & Agriculture Organization

Distribution of cases by gender

Distribution of cases by profession

Distribution of RVF cases and deaths, as of 25 September 2016